Strengthening Christian schools and equipping Christian educators to prepare students academically and inspire students to become devoted followers of Jesus Christ.
It’s a challenging but exciting time for Christian educators and schools.
Administrators are tasked with maintaining a strong school in tough economic times, while keeping up with technology changes and a shifting legal climate.

The Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) is the resource for a strengthening schools and equipping educators. Through 28 offices worldwide, ACSI offers multiple EE-12 member benefits to help Christian educators achieve their mission of impacting students’ lives:

1. Live and on-demand professional development
2. Peer-to-peer networking
3. School accreditation and teacher certification
4. Consultation from educational leaders
5. Legal Legislative advocacy and support
6. Student testing
7. Discounted products and services from Corporate Partners
8. Global awareness and presence
9. Cutting-edge curriculum
10. Academic and fine arts student activities

Where do they find the necessary resources to maintain their ministry and see it thrive?
