

Student Name: _____

Students who complete their grade requirements will be invited to attend the Summer Readers' Party in the fall during school hours. Students who are not participating (or do not complete their reading) will have regular classes on that day. Signed participation forms must be turned in by September 1st. Trip permission slips will be sent home with students who have completed the requirements. All new students, including Kindergarten students, are invited to attend.

We encourage all students to participate.
