

Elementary Student Profile

1. Child and parents must be receptive to Christ and Christian teachings (love, forgiveness, respect, etc.).
2. Child needs to be willing and teachable within the academic setting that CCS provides.
3. The ability to be accountable for choices that he/she makes. This must also be accepted and supported by parents.
4. Student and parent must accept that accountability does include reasonable consequences.
5. Student and parents must be willing to work through conflicts that arise.