

Alloutpraise! Band / Artist Agreement

This agreement described below is made between the Christian Family & Children's Center and band / artists playing for the contemporary Christian benefit concert Alloutpraise! on July 19, 2025 at the Center's gym/wellness center facility located at our North Campus at 1076 King's Way, Donegal, PA.

By signing below, the band / artist is agreeing to the following:

1. Band / artists agree to these terms as agents for themselves and are not under management, or have made the appropriate arrangements with their management, to be able to play in and meet the obligations of the event.
2. Band / artists and their support group of individuals coming with them confirm they understand this will be a distinctly Christian event, and must agree to all of the conditions of the festival found on the website www.alloutpraise.com and band detail site www.alloutpraise.com/bands. As a part of this event, the artists have reviewed the Center's website at www.champion.org to be aware of the Center's ministry and assuring that their presentation and all music and communication played must be consistent with the Center's ministry as an inter-denominational community ministry. Guidelines are available at www.champion.org/ccs/chapel/speakers.htm along with the Center's statement of faith. Please keep all content strictly Christian; no secular songs or secular covers.
3. Band / artists agree to sell at least 15 tickets to the event. All tickets sold before May 15th will be $15 each and must be sold and paid for by May 15th in order to hold a spot for the day's events. Band / artists who do not meet this minimum will not be able to be a part of the lineup for the day and will be expected to return their tickets and/or money for those sold.
4. Band / artists will continue to sell tickets at the increased price of $20 until June 15th at which time all tickets sold to date must be paid for. The amount of tickets will place each group in an order of picking their time spot in the lineup for the day. The band with the most tickets sold at that point will pick first, and each band in descending order until the last band receives their spot on the playlist.
5. Band / artists may continue to sell tickets, but the ranking will not change from that point on. Tickets sold from June 15th until July 18th are $25. No tickets may be sold after midnight on July 18th. All tickets will increase to $30 at the door.
6. Band / artists understand and confirm they must arrive at least 90 minutes in advance of their designated playing time which will be determined after band ticket sales are reported on June 15th. Band / artists must check in at the Center table to turn in extra tickets, pay for what they sold upon arrival, and turn in their group ticket contract. Final instructions and directions for their stage and equipment set up will be given at that time. If band / artists want to visit the other areas of the concert venue, they should do this before the two-hour check in or after their performance. Band / artists are expected to be in the artist prep area in order to keep the event running on time. Band / artists arriving late will risk forfeiting a portion of or all of their playing time.

7. Band / artists confirm there is no band / artists remuneration for this event, with the exception of the group ticket sale proceed. Band / artists may keep $5 from each adult ticket that they sell.
8. Band / artists will return the signed Band / Artist Agreement document by May 15th to info@champion.org with AOP Band / Artist Contract in the subject line.
9. Band / artists must regularly review the website www.alloutpraise.com to assure that their information represents them accurately.
10. Band / artists playing on Saturday are required to be responsible to sell a minimum of 15 tickets.

By signing the following agreement, the Center is communicating to the artists that they can expect the following:

1. Band / artists will be able to enter the venue without presenting a ticket. Please be sure to let us know the names of each of your band members.
2. Band / artists will be given complementary tickets that they may distribute to helpers that they bring with them. These tickets are intended only for band / artist support (those needed to help with gear, the booth, etc), not guests. In order to receive these extra tickets, band / artists must communicate with the Center, letting us know the names of each of your helpers.
3. Band / artist will be given one free 6' table spot to sell merchandise and share information about their ministry as per the "Exhibitor Table/Booth Contract". If you want to utilize the booth space, please let us know as soon as possible. You will need to provide your own workers for your booth and will be permitted to set up your booth on Friday if you pre-arrange that timeframe.
4. Band / artists will receive sound, technology, performance guidelines, times, and set length, and set up instructions from the audio engineering team in advance of the event. Band / artist will be allowed to have creative control at the sound booth, but all sound control will be mixed from the sound booth.
5. The Center will provide an accurate website and band information page at www.alloutpraise.com/bands. After your contract is received your name and a link to your website or social media page will be placed on the website. Please check to make sure it is correct and working.
6. Band / artists will be given a voucher for a complimentary sandwich and drink from the concession stand.

7. The Center will provide crews to assist in equipment unloading, prep area set up, stage set up and tear down and loading. In order to manage the stage (to keep everything on time), everyone will be expected to remain on a tight schedule to keep down time between performances. There will be a sound technician operating the equipment board, and there will be a stage manager and sound manager to assist with set up. Any time lost because of setup delays will have to come off the band set schedule.
8. The Center will, in good faith, encourage the ministry of each band / artist.
